The nearly 11,000-square-foot space of the two-story building must undergo some renovations before it can open to the public, according to the filing.

Hutchins BBQ has two locations in operation—one in Frisco and one in McKinney. The menu features a variety of smoked meats and sides such as broccoli salad, potato casserole, coleslaw, and jalapeno pinto beans. Specialties include beef ribs, fried catfish, and Texas Twinkies—a large jalapeno stuffed with brisket and cream cheese, and it's then wrapped in thick-cut bacon.

Catering is an option, and you can also have items shipped to you. Orders can be placed online, and USDA Prime Brisket, sausage, barbecue sauce, seasoning, and more can be shipped to your doorstep.
